On February 29, 2024, New Break submitted two final reports to the Ontario Ministry of Mines, relating to the Moray Project in respect of the 2023-2024 Ontario Junior Exploration Program. In March 2024, the Company received aggregate reimbursements of $206,224 from the government of Ontario, bringing the total 2023-2024 reimbursement to $236,224. All reimbursements received will be put back into exploration of the Moray Project during 2024.

New Break continues to finalize planning for an induced polarization (“IP”) survey at Moray, targeting the syenite intrusion, to be followed by a drilling program of approximately 2,500 metres that will specifically target the potential for gold mineralization contained within the syenite intrusive. The drilling program is subject to securing sufficient financing.

Effective April 26, 2024, Ashley Kirwan stepped down from the audit committee and was replaced by Gordon Morrison. Due to Ms. Kirwan's role as President and CEO of Orix Geoscience (2018) Inc., she had been deemed not to be an independent director. The change was made such that the audit committee of the Company is now comprised entirely of independent directors.
17. Discuss any trends which are likely to impact the Issuer including trends in the Issuer's market(s) or political/regulatory trends.
The price of gold (London P.M. Fix in U.S. dollars) continued to rise significantly during the month of April 2024, increasing from US$2,214.35 per ounce at March 28, 2024 to US$2,307.00 per ounce at April 30, 2024. Inflation in the U.S. has persisted at a rate higher than the goal of the U.S. Federal Reserve and while three quarter-point decreases during 2024 had been expected, rate decreases of any kind during 2024 are now in doubt. Market conditions for the purchase of shares of junior mining companies has improved marginally, despite a significantly higher gold price. Access to capital continues to be difficult.
